THRIFT, THRIFT, HORATIO.

The moon is working for the city these nights. After the moon comes out the lights on the streets are turned off and remain off until the moon makes its exit. It has been estimated by the shrewd finance committee of city council that the moon may be harnessed by the city and made to save $2 an hour on the light bill. This is equivalent to about $12 a night. If there is any city in the southwest which has a finance committee that can keep this stunt, commencing a planet millions of miles away and transforming it into an auxiliary lighting plant, just let them keep quiet about it for no one will believe it.

BOYLE, DEAD MINER, IS TO REST HERE

BROTHER WIRES INSTRUCTIONS

A telegram was received yesterday morning by the O. K. Undertaking establishment from Peter O. Boyle a brother of John Boyle, who met a tragic death at the Lowell mine early Thursday morning, instructing the undertakers to bury his brother here. LOWELL DOES NOT WANT BISBEE VAGS

JUDGE MURPHY SENDS FLOAT-
ERS BACK TO BISBEE
FROM ROAD WORK.

Out of the frying pan into the fire, proved to be the luck of George Williams and William Long, two white men who were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Will White on the charge of begging on the streets of the city. When they were arraigned before Judge T. D. Hardick yesterday they were each fined $50 and six hours in which to collect it. They were advised that they might be able to collect the money in distant parts and further the distance the better.

A word to the men was sufficient and in a few minutes they pulled out of Lowell, the first stop. There they encountered the fire. They were arrested by Officer Hall on the charge of vagrancy and when arraigned before Judge Murphy they were given five days on the road and sent back to Bisbee. When arrested at Lowell they had two bottles of wine in their possession which they evidently had bought with the money they had begged in Bisbee.

WITNESSES GIVEN FREEDOM BY COURT

BONADINA TEST CASE FOR
HABEAS CORPUS IS HEARD
AT PHOENIX.

Henry Bonadina, one of the three witnesses held in the case of the murder of Parker Bowling and Don Faulk in Bisbee a month ago last Thursday, was granted his freedom at Phoenix yesterday by the supreme court. As the case of Bonadina was chosen to make a test with the two others will probably be released.

The witnesses were held following their acquittal of the charge of participating in the killing, but were held under bond of $500 as witnesses. The Italians took their case to the district court and asked that a writ of habeas corpus be granted them, but this was denied and the matter was carried to the supreme court of the territory, with the above result.

A scarce Connecticut item is "The Code of 1550, being a compilation of the earliest Laws and Orders of the General Court of Connecticut, also the Constitution, or Civil Contract, entered into and adopted by the Towns of Windsor, Hartford and Wethersfield in 1638." One of the interesting New England items in the collection is a copy of Barclay's Catechism and Confession of Faith, containing the autograph signature of Batchelor Bunker, who is said to have been the original owner of Bunker Hill.

SERVICE LOSER OFFICER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13.—Major General William P. Duval, who was placed on the retired list of the army today on account of age, leaves behind him an enviable record for efficient and faithful service. Gen. Duval is a native of Maryland and a graduate of the West Point academy of the class of 1867. Appointed second lieutenant, Fifth Artillery, in that year, he reached the grade of first lieutenant in 1877. He graduated for the artillery school in 1892 and in 1893 was made captain of artillery. When the war with Spain began he was selected as major inspector general of volunteers. In 1899, after having been made lieutenant colonel he was honorably discharged from the volunteer service. He was mustered out of the service in 1901 with the rank of colonel. The same year he was made major of the artillery corps and in 1906 took the rank of lieutenant colonel. In March of the same year he was made brigadier general. A year later he was selected to succeed Maj. Gen. John F. Weston in command of the troops in the Philippines.

BENEFIT FOR MAYER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—A remarkable aggregation of actors and actresses appeared in a revival of the blood-and-thunder melodrama, "The Queen of the Highbinders," on the stage of the New Amsterdam Theater this afternoon. The performance was one of the principal features of the monster testimonial arranged for the benefit of Marcus A. Mayer, the old-time theatrical manager. Among the well-known players who gave their services were Amelia Bingham, Bijou Fernandez, William Collier, Walter Jones, Tyrone Power and Charles Cherry.

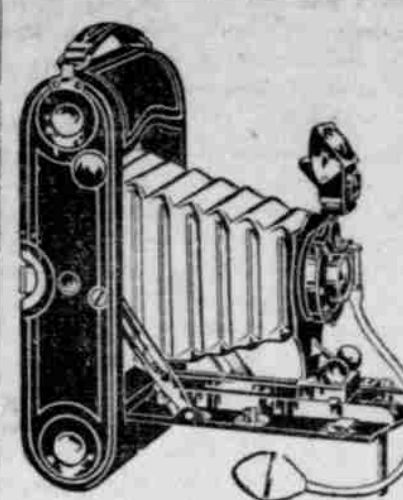

Marcus A. Mayer, the beneficiary of the performance, is now an old man, but in his prime he probably was the foremost manager in the profession. Certain it is that no other manager has launched the destinies of so many great stars of the stage. Mr. Mayer began his career as manager for the celebrated Julia Dean Hayne and the younger Keen, after which he successfully directed the tours of the world renowned celebrities, Edwin Booth, Lawrence Barrett, Edwin Adams, Adelaide Neilson, Rose Eyttinge, Jane Hading, Charlotte Cushman, Sarah Bernhardt, Sir Henry Irving, M. Coquelin, Monet-Sully, Mary Anderson and Adella Patti.
